BULL DOG WAS MAD

That Bit Dr. C. B. Johnson
—Dogs Head Returned
From Bowling
Green

TREATMENT TO BE SENT HERE

On last Sunday afternoon a bull-dog belonging to Charlie McClain, a colored man of this city, bit Dr. C. B. Johnson twice on the leg. The dog was killed and the head sent to Bowling Green for examination. When the examination was made it was learned that the dog had hydrophobia, and Dr. Johnson was so notified. He at once made arrangements to have the treatment sent here to avoid the loss of time in going to Bowling Green for treatment. The mate to this dog bit the little child of Buck McLeod, Webb Bros. driver Saturday, and arrangements have been made to send the child to Bowling Green for treatment. These two dogs of McClain's may have bitten other dogs and it would be well for the people of this place to keep a look-out for dogs for some time.

Cocktails

The old way of doing business was to take a prospective purchaser, especially if he were from the country, and "show him the town." Salesmen of the leading business houses had an unlimited expense account for such use, for this was the accepted method of landing a big order. Standards have risen in recent years and the best concerns would frown upon the salesman who had to take customers to the red light district, the low-class theatre, the saloon, or the card table to get an order. There are some houses, however, that still encourage their employees to follow this lower standard of business morality and efficiency.

A still more remarkable situation is disclosed in the plea of "guilty" made by the high-salaried sales manager, named White, of a New York company to the charge of robbing two messengers of his company of the payroll $3,000. His downfall he lays to cocktails taken with his employer at luncheon, this leading on to nights of drunken gaiety with other companions, finally transforming a sober business man into a crook. His attorney, commenting upon his downfall, said: "It was the case of a man who had to go to Manhattan and the Tenderloin and drink wine and spend money to hold his position. White had to do this to get business, and his advancement was due to the fact that for years he made a habit of it. He finally got to going there for his own pleasure and fell in with bad company. It is the old story of a good man being dragged down by bad men."

The employer who takes his sales manager out to luncheon and fills him with cocktails and wine so that he is ashamed to let half-drunken condition to go back to the office, need not be surprised if his trusted employee, under the influence of drink, betrays the trust imposed in him. White himself said, "How easily the suggestion of crime creeps into a man's mind under the influence of drink."

Best Time In The World

Where are you going to spend your idle hours during the heat of the coming summer? Must you loaf on the streets, with the sun beating down 100 degrees in the shade, or must you spend your hours in a hot, sultry room at home reading or fanning to keep cool? What's the use! Why not join the Earlington Boy's Club, and have a cool, nice reading room, good chairs, good literature, good companions and a luxurious shower bath. The club room is always open, and you are always welcome—when your dues are up to date—and you are needed to get others to join. Think how nice it would be to have some such place to go to after your days work is done, how you would enjoy a cool, pleasant shower bath in the heat of August; and how independent you would be as a member of the E. B. C. Send in your application by some member and get your place before the hot weather begins.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to friends and acquaintances for their loving kindness and tender sympathy to us during the recent illness and death of our beloved daughter Geneva. May the richest blessings of Heaven rest on them and in case of like trouble may the Lord in his mercy raise up as many tender friends. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hart

Earlington vs Madisonville

In the game of ball played on the Earlington Field Saturday, the game resulted in a victory for Madisonville the score being 7 to 14 in favor of the latter place. O Connor and Carpenter were the batter for Earlington and Weir and Lindsay for Madisonville.

NOTICE

The U. D. C. will meet Thursday afternoon at 1:30 with Mrs. D. M. Umstead. Business of importance will be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

Incidentally, however, clear up week should be three hundred and sixty-five days long.

GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL SUNDAY

Well Lived Up to in Our Fair
City by Both White and Colored

TOTAL ATTENDANCE OF 1,614

Earlington certainly did her part to give the State 1,500,000 in Sunday School Sunday, May 7. The attendance by schools follows:

- Christian Church, 405.
- M. E. Church, South, 294.
- M. E. Church, 200
- Missionary Baptist Church, 148
- General Baptist Church, 85.
- Colored Baptist Church, 320.
- O. M. E. Church, 118.
- A. M. E. Zion Church, 94.

This gives a grand total in the schools of the city, both white and colored, 1,614.

Our people can always be depended upon to do their part in any religious effort put forth. The Sunday Schools are in better condition now than possibly ever before, as are also the churches generally.

QUICK ACTION

Ernest Newton who is secretary of the Insurance Department of the K. of P.'s at this place, received a check for $1000.00 May 8th in favor of Mrs. E. H. Wyatt of Nortonville, in settlement of insurance carried by her late husband. This check was received only six days after final proofs were mailed to the home office at Indianapolis and establishes so far as we know a new record for quick settlement after proof of death. That thousand dollars will be a great blessing to that widowed mother and little three year old son, who was left alone and without any support. That beats being sent away to an orphan's home though ever so good.

Band Concert Sunday Afternoon, May 14th

A sacred concert will be played by the Morton's Gap band on the Court House Square, in Madisonville, at 2:15 p. m., Sunday May 14th.

This band has been chosen by Gen. F. B. Harris over all others in the State of Kentucky to accompany him to Birmingham to play for the Kentucky Division during our grand reunion, 16th to 19th. Will leave Madisonville the 15th. Don't forget the hour, 2:15.

F. S. SIMPSON, Director.

Is Improving

Bayless Long, who was shot thru the head by Tom Woodward at Nortonville last week while resisting arrest, is improving slowly and will recover, according to reports.

People have become over weary and have quit yelping over the high cost of living. Which, we opine, is a sure sign that the boosters are about due for another boost.

We advocate preparedness in this shop. We are prepared to receipt subscription bills six days in the week, and if you can't get around in the six days we'll grab it on Sunday without batting an eye or turning a hair.

NIGHT RIDER CASES BEFORE THE COURT

W. H. Peterson and Ollie Jackson Defendants in Case

JURY COMPLETED AT 4 O'CLOCK

The cases of the Commonwealth vs. W. H. Peterson and Ollie Jackson, two alleged night riders under indictment as the result of a raid on a negro cabin at Carbondale in the fall of 1914, in which one negro was killed, was before the court yesterday. All day was spent in an effort to secure a jury, which was completed at four o'clock in the afternoon.

There are about thirty-five alleged "night riders" under indictment, and other cases will probably be taken up at the conclusion of the trial of Peterson and Jackson. A large number of witnesses have been summoned. Attorneys Powell & Gibson represent the defendants, while the commonwealth is being assisted by Gordon, Gordon & Moore.

Later—Peterson and Jackson were sentenced to the penitentiary from one to three years.

SOUTH WILL HAVE THE GREATEST MONUMENT WORLD HAS KNOWN

Ten years from now—or possibly in only years—the South will have for all time the most wonderful and enduring monument that the world has ever seen to commemorate the military endeavors (and the sacrifices) of a people. It is the memorial to the soldiers of the Confederate States. The 80,000 women who make up the United Daughters of the Confederacy have taken a whole mountain as sculptor's stone for permanently honoring their great Beside it the pyramids will dwindle; and even the Acropolis of Athens will seem a thing of dwarf proportions.

Stone Mountain, sixteen miles northeast from Atlanta, Ga., is the spot selected. It rises bald and alone from out a natural park of primeval trees. It is about two miles long and 700 feet high. Here the work has already begun. Gu'zon Borglum, sculptor in the mastodon, is in charge, and the preliminary drawings have been made in his New York studio. His is a gigantic task, a decade of years and $2,000,000 in money will be required for its completion.

The work is to reconstruct the great warrior figures of half a century ago in the everlasting stone, and in colossal proportions carve them in high and full relief, some 2,000 strong, marching across the face of the mountain in sublime pageantry for all the world to see in future ages.

Lee, Stonewall Jackson and "Jeb" Stewart will ride at the head; and both Johnsons, and many others who have carved for themselves a place in history, even as the sculptor will carve them one in the stone that is the very color of the uniform they wore. Their figures will be in proportion to the mountains size, each horse and rider will be 45 to 50 feet high in a column 2000 feet long.
